Angels' Howell gets howled at in Etiwanda

Star warns students of impending choice

By Lee Peterson

Etiwanda sixth-graders must've figured one good howl deserved another.

After California Angels third baseman Jack Howell delivered a pep talk at their intermediate school, the youngest students out-shouted their older school mates.

The sixth-graders came in first in the noisemaking competition staged after the power-hitting Howell spoke to the entire student body in the school's gymnasium.

In his motivational address, the soft-spoken Howell let the students know that soon, they will face a decision.

The choice he said the 11 to 14 year olds will have to make is whether or not to participate in drinking alcohol or taking drugs.

When in college, the young Howell was asked to come along "drinking with the boys." That night, Howell said he made the wrong decision.

After "having a few," Howell said he joined the others in knocking around the punching bag machine that measures

Upland apartment rules changed

By David Madsen

The Upland City Council has voted unanimously to have the Planning Commission drop the maximum number of apartment units allowed from 30 to 20 units

However, disgruntled southeast residents called the recent vote only a "token move" toward easing apartment related problems in their area.

The residents oppose current zoning which allows up to 30

Drunk, he ended up misfiring a right cross on the punch-o-meter and fracturing his hand.

Fortunately for him, doctors put his hand back together and he was able to continue playing baseball

Howell said he was fortunate and able from then on to leave alcohol and drugs behind forever

The 27-year-old right-hand thrower and left-hand batter found he had another decision to make last year

After a pre-game warm-up session one day Howell talked to a youngster in the stands who was wondering if he could have a "dip" of Howell's can of chewing tobacco.

Dumbfounded, Howell said he realized that he wasn't setting a very good example by using chewing tobacco.

"I haven't chewed tobacco since that day," Howell said.

Judging by the way many of the students sought Howell's autograph, the kids do indeed

YMCA plans ready for review in R.C.

By Lee Peterson

Plans for the Rancho Cucamonga YMCA - a $4.5 million project - are nearly ready to undergo review by the city's Planning Commission, according to the project architect.

Major fund-raising efforts to be headed by local developer James Barton - are being organized to pay for the facility which the YMCA hopes to open by the end of next year.

A private consultant has been hired to direct the fund-raising.

If the city's scrutiny and approval of the YMCA project takes the expected three months, construction could begin in January, according to project architect Pete Pitassi.

The YMCA will be located on the east side of Milliken Avenue just north of Church Street in the Terra Vista community.

The site will be adjacent to a future five-acre park. The YMCA building and parking lot will take up another 4.5 acres.

The facility will include a fullsized gymnasium with a seating capacity of 500 for basketball, volleyball and badminton.

SHOULD I PURSUE MY INJURY

The most frequent question asked by an injured employee is, "How will this injury effect my employment? Will I be fired? Can I be fired while I'm unable to work? Will I have difficulty finding another job?"

The answer is not easy. Once the injury has occurred, the damage has already occurred. Some insurance company is going to have to pay for this, and your name is put on a central computer for future reference. Your employer knows of the injury: thus it is not to be forgotten. If you use this employer for a future reference, the injury will more than likely be brought out. It really depends on your employer, but the damage has already occurred.

There are penalties against your employer if you are fired or discriminated against because you were.

discriminated against because you

- 1. Injured on the job
- Filed a claim
 Hired an attorney

3. Hired an attorney
If you can prove that your employer has discriminated against you for any of the above reasons, your employer must pay you, out of his pocket, fifty per cent of all benefits that you have been paid under Workers' Compensation.
Thus, if all of the medical bills, temporary disability and permanent disability total $20,000, then the employer would be responsible to pay you $10,000.
In addition, the Workers' Compensation Appeals Board has the authority to order reinstatement of authority to order reinstatement of your job and complete lost wages that were incurred because of the discrimination that has taken place.

REMEMBER, IT IS YOUR EMPLOYER THAT MUST PAY THE PENALTY AND NOT THE INSURANCE COMPANY.

CLASSIC TEA CART

Here is a most gracious way to serve your guests. Our detailed plan uses step-by-step pictures, a materials shopping list, a cutting schedule and concise drawings o show the amateur woodworker how to build the cart. It measures 28" high x 30" long x 16" wide (with leaves folded). The wheels are cut from a full-size traceable pattern while the spokes and baluster posts are wood turnings. Use pine or the wood of your choice.

HOW TO WRITE A CLASSIFIED AD THAT WORKS!!

Give readers the information they want and get the results... YOU want.

be complete.

Put yourself in the reader's place. If you were considering buying this item what would you want to know about it? Give the item's age, condition, size, brand name and any other information needed to describe it accurately and completely.

avoid abbreviations.

A few standard abbreviations can help you save space but don't overdo it. Too many abbreviations will make your ad look like a secret coded message. Rather than trying to figure out what you're trying to say, confused readers will go on to the next ad.

include price.

Price is one of the biggest concerns of classified readers. Ads that list prices will get their attention first. Including the price will also help you avoid inquiries from readers not in your price range.

be available.

List your telephone number or address so potential buyers will know HOW to contact you. State the best hours to call so they'll know WHEN to contact you. If you're not home when an interested prospect calls, chances are he won't call back.

feel free to ask for help.

Because help is free for the asking. The Daily Report maintains a staff of professional Advisors who write dozens of ads every day. They'll be happy to help you word your ad for the best results.

Place your classified ad TODAY!
